

Matt Geist

Matt Geist is a senior vice president at HM Science, a specialized division of Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm. Matt represents biotech, medical device and healthcare companies in their leasing and space acquisitions. Matt has developed an expertise in merging his clients' long term vision with financial structure and market knowledge to leverage the most optimal outcomes for his clients.

Matt has extensive experience working with life science companies that are headquartered both within the United States, as well as abroad. These companies have leaned heavily on Matt's expertise to better understand the local real estate markets, proximity to competition and talent, and what makes the Bay Area one of the most venture-backed biotech markets in the world.

Matt lives in Lafayette with his wife, daughter, and their French bulldog. When Matt is not in the office, he enjoys spending time with his wife and little girl, four nephews, reading and going for long mountain bike rides all around the East Bay.
