Cameron Love is an executive vice president with Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that specializes in representing tenants and buyers. As a leader in the firm's San Francisco office, Cameron advises companies in various industries with all aspects of their commercial real estate activities in San Francisco, Silicon Valley and beyond. His extensive knowledge of the market, combined with his experience and problem-solving skills, make him a trusted advisor when representing tenants in strategic planning, dispositions, lease renewals and renegotiations, site selection analysis, financial modeling and portfolio management for nearly a decade.

Before joining Hughes Marino, Cameron was a director at Cushman & Wakefield where he represented occupiers exclusively. He has held leadership positions as chair of the Bay Area C&W Future Leaders organization and was a member of the Emerging Technology Advisory practice group. Cameron is also an active member of CoreNet, the global corporate real estate association, chairing the Bay Area chapters Young Leaders network and is a candidate for his masters in corporate real estate (MCR) designation.

Cameron's list of corporate clients includes: Poly (Global Portfolio Management), CH2M Hill (Americas Transactions), PNC Bank (Multiple Transactions), S+C Electric (Portfolio Management), Figure (Global Portfolio Management), Regional Centers of the Bay Area (Multiple Transactions), Pantheon Systems, Charles Schwab, Carta, Human Capital, Symic Biomedical, George P Johnson, f'real foods, and Interana.

Cameron graduated with honors from the University of San Francisco, receiving a bachelor's degree in business administration, with a focus in real estate, while also pitching for the USF Dons baseball team. After over a decade living in San Francisco's NoPa and Richmond District, Cameron now resides in San Rafael with his wife Caroline, his son Jackson, and his twins Cooper and Harper. In his free time, Cameron can be found on his road bike with friends on Hawk Hill, or with his family exploring trails throughout China Camp State Park minutes from their home.
