Michelle Quinn is a vice president at Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that exclusively represents tenants and buyers. Michelle brings her business development skills and incredible networking ability to representing and advising tenants in Silicon Valley and nationally.

Michelle joined the Hughes Marino team after nearly 17 years of her career as a top furniture consultant and partner at KBM Hogue. Over her career, Michelle has built strong relationships and inked massive deals with some of the Bay Area's most notable businesses like Google, Tesla and Cisco. Michelle's hands-on approach combined with her ability to understand her clients' brand, culture, and vision allows her to advise her clients both on how to best utilize the space they currently have and plan for what they might need in the future as they grow. Michelle is dedicated to ensuring that every one of her clients always receives the highest level of service every step of the way in their real estate project.

When Michelle is not hustling around the Bay Area meeting with clients, you can find her spending time with her husband, Nathan, and dog, Zoe. Michelle is a San Diego native and went to University of California, Berkeley, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in English. She played field hockey for the Bears and remains active in the Cal Alumni community. Michelle is still active in US Women's field hockey and enjoys spending time on the water and at the gym. Michelle is passionate about volunteer and non-profit work, serving on the board of an art non-profit, Djerassi.
