

Austin Lashley

Associate Vice President | austin@hughesmarino.com

Austin Lashley is an associate vice president at Hughes Marino, an award-winning commercial real estate company, where he represents tenants in their leasing and space acquisitions. Based out of the firm's Seattle office, Austin specializes in assisting companies develop a real estate strategy that can help them achieve both their short and long-term business goals.

As a Seattle native, Austin brings a deep understanding and expertise of the expansive Pacific Northwest commercial real estate market to his clients. Austin began pursuing his real estate career before graduating college, receiving both his Washington and California real estate licenses. Having worked in Seattle and Los Angeles, Austin has had the unique opportunity to complete transactions in some of the most dynamic and fast-paced real estate markets in the country.

Austin graduated cum laude from Occidental College in Los Angeles with a bachelor's degree in economics, where he also competed as a national collegiate level swimmer. In his final competition, he placed third in the 100m fly at the NCAA National Championship in Indianapolis. Austin combines his competitive drive and team-oriented mentality to deliver the most strategic and advantageous outcomes tailored to each client's unique objectives.

In his free time, Austin loves swimming, boating, hiking, snowboarding and exploring the Pacific Northwest with his friends and family.

Education

- Occidental College, B.A. in economics

Professional Activities

- Washington State Department of Real Estate Licensed Broker
 - Broker License #132863
- California State Department of Real Estate Licensed Broker
 - Broker License #02042400