

Chris Rohrbach

Vice President | chris@hughesmarino.com

Chris Rohrbach serves as vice president at Hughes Marino, a leading global corporate real estate advisory firm specializing in tenant and buyer representation. With over a decade of experience, he has guided hundreds of clients through their unique real estate journeys.

Focusing his expertise on the Bellevue and Eastside markets of Seattle, Chris brings unparalleled insight into navigating the complexities of leasing and purchasing commercial real estate. His advisory spans across office, life science and industrial properties, catering to diverse client needs. Recognized for his unwavering integrity and diligent work ethic, Chris is committed to delivering exceptional results for his clients. He takes pride in representing tenants and illuminating the intricacies of an otherwise opaque industry.

As a native of Seattle, Chris boasts an innate understanding of the local real estate landscape and its underlying influences. Having begun his career at Broderick Group, where he represented both landlords and tenants, Chris possesses a profound understanding of the intricate dynamics that shape real estate transactions. Leveraging his extensive market knowledge and innovative analytical skills, he adeptly guides clients through the challenges of securing prime office locations amidst fiercely competitive markets.

Having attended the University of Washington as a collegiate athlete in football before completing his education at Central Washington University, Chris maintains strong ties to his alma mater. Actively contributing to the Wildcat Athletic Association Board as Secretary, he remains deeply invested in fostering the university's community spirit.

Chris resides in Issaquah with his wife, Marisa, and their children, Kennedy, Kingston and Emerson. Beyond his professional pursuits, he cherishes quality family time, often exploring the scenic trails of the "Issaquah Alps" or participating in local ultra-marathon competitions. If not on the trail, he can be found in a gym or on a field coaching his children's teams at their numerous sporting events.
