

Gracie Burns

Associate Vice President | gracie@hughesmarino.com

Gracie Burns is an associate vice president at Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that specializes in representing tenants and buyers. Based out of the firm's Orange County office, Gracie and her team represent tenants and buyers delivering top-notch brokerage, construction management, and lease auditing and administration services to clients across the nation.

With a strong background in customer service and client-facing roles, Gracie brings a natural ability to connect with clients, understand their unique needs and deliver thoughtful, results-driven support. As a former high-performing student athlete at Southern Methodist University, she developed the discipline, competitive drive and team-first mentality that guide her approach to every client relationship.

Outside of work, you can often find Gracie staying active outdoors with friends and family, whether spending time at the beach or on the pickleball court.
