

Griffin Foulk

Vice President | griffin@hughesmarino.com

Griffin Foulk is a vice president at Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that specializes in representing tenants and buyers, and brings his extensive experience in finance and real estate to the team. His wide-ranging ability to optimize debt, equity and investment sales have resulted in numerous successful outcomes for his clients. Griffin serves a wide array of clients, from private mid-sized organizations to large publicly traded enterprises.

Griffin is an alumnus of the University of Colorado Boulder, where he played Division 1 football for the Buffs. Prior to his time on the field, Griffin was an accomplished professional hockey player in the East Coast Hockey League and Western Hockey League. Leveraging his comprehensive background in athletics, Griffin brings his results-driven mindset and team-oriented approach when working with clients on their requirements.

Griffin resides in Orange County, with his wife, Caroline, and dog, Gus. Griffin has a passion for many outdoor pursuits, including skiing, golfing and running. Griffin and Caroline have an affinity for new cultures and countries and are always looking for the next adventure when the time allows for travel.

Education

- Cornell University, certificate in commercial real estate
- University of Colorado, Boulder, B.S. in political science

Professional Activities

- California Department of Real Estate
 - License #02166496
- Colorado Licensed Real Estate Broker, State of Colorado
 - License #: CO - FA.100086025
- CU Real Estate Center - Board Member - Young Alumni
- NAIOP - Developing Leaders Member