

Kevin Beaumonte

Vice President | kevin.beaumonte@hughesmarino.com

Kevin Beaumonte is a vice president at Hughes Marino, where he specializes in representing tenants who occupy office, R&D and industrial properties. For the past 10 years, Kevin has focused on consulting with companies on lease negotiations, workplace strategy, facility acquisitions and occupancy cost reduction, completing over 400 transactions during this time.

Kevin advises companies throughout San Diego County and regional clients requiring support out-of-market. His experience in negotiating lease and purchase transactions on behalf of tenants ranges from startups to publicly traded companies. Kevin has nurtured countless long-lasting relationships throughout the community and is considered a trusted advisor among his clients. He takes great pride in delivering excellent corporate real estate outcomes to every client he advises.

Residing in San Diego, you can find Kevin spending time with family and friends, traveling or exploring the city's enthralling restaurant scene in his spare time.

Education

- California State University, Chico, B.S. in business administration and marketing

Professional Activities

- California Department of Real Estate
 - License #01941161