Michael Doyle is a vice president at Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that specializes in representing tenants and buyers. Based in the company's Salt Lake City office, Michael is dedicated to helping his clients navigate the ever-evolving commercial real estate market. With his focus on representing tenants across multiple industries, Michael is committed to understanding his clients' needs, helping to find the best possible solution while being an advocate for them throughout the transaction process and beyond.

Prior to joining the Hughes Marino team, Michael was an account executive for a technology firm and partnered with clients from Fortune 500 to local Utah companies. Michael was instrumental in serving as a business partner to his clients, advising them on what steps they needed to take to help elevate their business. Building meaningful relationships was essential to delivering exceptional results for his clients and Michael continues to use these ideals in his role on the Hughes Marino team.

Originally from Jackson Hole, Wyoming, Michael loves to spend time in the mountains. He enjoys bowhunting, fishing, boating, and hiking. He continues to enjoy these activities alongside family and friends in Salt Lake. Michael grew up playing a multitude of sports and excelled at hockey. Following his hockey career, he now enjoys volunteering with his local hockey association.
