Scott Richardson is a vice president at Hughes Marino, a global corporate real estate advisory firm that specializes in representing tenants and buyers. Based in the firm's Raleigh-Durham office, Scott advises companies across multiple industries on all aspects of their commercial real estate needs, from strategic planning to complex lease and purchase negotiations.

Prior to joining Hughes Marino, Scott spent over a decade helping clients bring their stories to life through video production and creative strategy. As the founder of Legit Creative (previously Guard Dog Creative), he collaborated directly with B2B and SaaS companies to understand their needs, manage projects end-to-end and deliver tailored content that drove results. His experience in client-facing roles honed his ability to build trust, understand unique client needs and provide solutions that align with business objectives. He now brings these skills to serving tenants and occupiers in the corporate real estate space.

Scott received both his bachelor's degree in communications and master's degree in interactive media from Elon University. Outside of work, you can usually find Scott testing out new crockpot recipes, cheering for the Golden State Warriors or holding one of his cats.
